T. W. SHOWERS, Signal Corps.

Dr. S. F. Hatch is returned from a visit to Leadville.

The A. O. U. W. lodge meets this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The funeral of Wesley Dan Cook will take place from the residence of his brother, L. C. Dana, on North Nevada Avenue, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Earl Cranston, the only son of Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Peck died yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. The funeral will take place from the house to-day at 2 p. m.

Mr. G. P. Bacon, through the real estate agency of Edgar Howbert & Co., yesterday purchased of the property on East Pike's Peak avenue known as the Jones Otis place.

Charley Howbert and Guy Humphrey came down from their ranch yesterday to attend the circus. They are thinking of organizing a base ball club at the Buttes to play the Colorado Springs team.

A. P. Barbank, the well known reader whose appearance here last spring was so successful, has consented to return and I will give a reading for the benefit of the G. A. R. post, in the early part of next month.

The Ladies' society of the Congregational church held their annual meeting yesterday and decided to hold a fair for the benefit of the new church early in December, when they hope for the help and patronage of all their friends.

Black Brothers' circus, which has been performing successfully to good audiences all week, will give a matinee for school children on Saturday afternoon. The admission price will be ten cents and all children who attend will receive a prize.

Mr. S. Gregory, of Trinidad, Colorado, representing Gregory's artistic monument works, is in the city. He has recently finished a fine monument for Mr. John Hinchman of this city, which has been placed on the family lot at Evergreen cemetery.

Mr. Geo. T. Aiken, on going out to his stable yesterday morning, discovered that his sorrel pure-bred disappeared. He fears that she has been stolen as she is very valuable, and has never strayed for any length of time before.

Mr. F. F. Small while at work on the new barn being erected on Cascade avenue just south of Bacon & Cowell's stable, had his right hand so badly crushed yesterday by the rolling of a heavy log on it that part of one of the fingers had to be amputated.

The Fifteenth band will accompany the excursion to Denver on Sunday next. A special train will leave the Union depot at 9 o'clock, returning will leave Denver at 9:15 p. m. Tickets are on sale at Bell's drug store, and by members of the club.

There has been a large advance sale of seats for the game of base ball between the Solis and Colorado Springs club this afternoon and as the rivalry between the clubs is very bitter on account of the last game they will be hard fought and interesting contest. Main and W. J. McMahon for the Grays and Finch and Taylor for the Solis will be the batteries.

Reserved seats will be placed on sale at the Midland ticket office this morning for the amateur minstrel performance to be given at the opera house on Tuesday evening. The entertainment will be first class and being given in the interest of a good cause our people should see that they have a large house. The usual prices of admission will be charged.

Assistant Sherwood yesterday received a telegram from the signal service bureau at Washington ordering the signal station on Pike's Peak closed on the 30th inst. The reason assigned is to close the station temporarily and remove the lighter articles to this city, and that further portions will be sent by mail. It is to be hoped that the station will only remain closed a short time.

The children are owing to the Ladies' Hand club an immense scrap basket to be sent to poor, sick children who have to spend long weary days in hospitals with so little to amuse them. If there are any persons who have pictures cards that they would like to give to the poor of their own, send them to 205 North Weber street. The children will be very glad to receive them at this good work.

The fire department was called out last evening about a quarter past eleven o'clock by an alarm of fire that sounded like seven twos. The fire proved to be in the building occupied by Sam Bros as a grocery store on North Tejon street. The fire originated in the rear of the building and was discovered in a quantity of dust which had been piled there. The fire department quickly responded and the Crown Hook company, followed shortly after by the Jacksons, soon had a stream on the flames. There was a fire started in the same building about a year ago. The building was owned by Mr. W. H. Robinson, the damage to the building is about $200 with no insurance. Sam Brothers loss could not be estimated. The building adjoining is owned by Mr. Thomas Tuft and Mr. Arnold was considerably damaged. Mr. Sam's loss will be about $

The state department has just received official information that the Chinese government has rejected the treaty. This will be rather stale news as the newspapers of London learned of the fact about two weeks ago.

The people of New York city wish to have Mayor Hewitt become a candidate for re-election, but the politicians have decided to nominate some other man. But if the people are for Mr Hewitt it makes little difference what the politicians may do.

While the democratic party professes to be the foe of monopolies and the friend of the people, it is at the same time conducting its campaign on funds supplied by the arch monopolists in the country. The sugar trust has contributed largely to the democratic exchequer, and it has been openly stated that the Mormon church has agreed to give $100,000, provided that the rigorous prosecutions of Mormon polygamists are abandoned.

The republicans of the Third Pennsylvania congressional district have as yet not made any nomination for congressman, as that is Mr Randall's district. If the democrats of the district throw that gentleman overboard he will run as an independent and the republicans will give him such support that the low tariff element in the democratic party in Philadelphia have been making extra efforts to defeat Mr Randall but his personal following is so strong that the opposition to him from [illegible] movements will not amount to very much.

The democrats during the campaign of 1880 were very outspoken in their denunciation of the methods adopted by Mr. Jay Hubbell, chairman of the republican congressional committee, to secure funds for campaign purposes. The manner in which the employees of the government were assessed formed the chief of many democratic arguments, and it was cited as [illegible] republican party of power. But the democratic managers of 1888 have adopted the very same methods of collecting funds which they accused the republicans of following in 1880. Employees in every department of the government have been [illegible] campaign fund. Even in Colorado where the democrats have little prospect of success government employees have been [illegible]. The [illegible] contribution of President Cleveland has been used as a means of [illegible] amount from those who are drawing their living in the service of the government. The party has not made enough progress in the direction of reform in the civil service which it has not found its professions of civil service reform have all turned out to be of the most hypocritical character. The work of cleansing of the Augean stables which the late Mr Tilden was so desirous of accomplishing is still unperformed though the necessity for such a work is daily becoming more apparent.

The St Louis Globe Democrat can see [illegible] politicians this year. It says:

There is no need for any more than two parties in this campaign. It is the tariff, and not temperance or woman suffrage, which is the absorbing issue of the canvass. The question of the prohibition of the liquor traffic and the other question of the extension of the ballot to women are of interest to thousands of intelligent persons. The tariff question however, has a far more direct and practical bearing upon the community than either of those. It affects the interests of everybody. For every one person who has even the remotest concern for prohibition and woman suffrage, one hundred thousand and more are directly concerned in the tariff.

In many presidential years in the past [illegible] the issue has been [illegible] the main political arguments. There is no excuse whatever this year. When there is such a mighty issue which fairly bristles with overwhelming force calling to the consciences, the reason and the patriotism of party disciplinarians and party voters to [illegible] come to [illegible] and [illegible] assert themselves. Slavery was the issue of the class first named, and the tariff is that of the other class. All [illegible] political superstitions and [illegible] sunk into insignificance when [illegible] slavery was in competition with the slavery question, for the tariff dwarfs every other question of national importance to-day. The [illegible] overwhelming importance this year is the tariff, and every voter who did join one or other of the two great political organizations according to his attitude toward this issue.

Stock Markets.

NEW YORK September 21.—Money on call easy at 1@1½ closed offered 1. Prime mercantile paper 3@4. The stock market was dull tone of dealings feverish and weak. The dullness and apathy were quite as surprising as the wide fluctuations of a week ago. Grangers took the second place while Vanderbilts were the most conspicuous. Northern Pacific was sold by London, and the illness of Mr Wright laid a depressing influence on stocks. Government bonds dull but firm.
